

NUR224 - Nursing Across the Life Span II
Clinical Focus Sheet
 Service Learning

Course Objectives	Clinical Objectives
Upon completion of this clinical focus sheet, the student should be able to:
7. examine relevant ethical and legal issues pertaining to individuals and families with alterations in health.	b. maintain confidentiality of patient/family and members of the health care team.
	c. practice only nursing care for which he/she has been prepared and directed to perform.
	d. practice within the legal parameters of the Maine statutes regulating the practice of professional nursing.
	e. follow the ANA Code of Ethics and the NSNA code of Academic and Clinical Conduct.
	f. accept responsibility for own actions.
	g. practice legal and ethical accountability.
	8. function as a responsible A.D.N. student.
b. submit assigned paperwork to the instructor as directed and on time.
d. actively seek available learning experiences.
e. respectfully express values and feelings regarding the clinical experience.
f. demonstrate initiative when working with health team members.
g. report to clinical experience on time
j. practice within the policies of the clinical facility and KVCC.
l. be prepared and able to participate.
m. perform a service learning project.

Assignment: Due November 19, 2008

The student will demonstrate achievement of the above objectives by:

A.	Choosing a service learning project and attaining faculty approval.
B.	Participating in the project for 4-6 hours.
C.	Keeping a journal, writing about what is being learned from serving the community in this manner.
D.	Completing the project by the date due and submitting your journal entry via Blackboard to Lila Finlay

Requires Readings/Preparation:

None