COURSE DESCRIPTION:

A general scientific study of people and the dynamics of society, with emphasis upon the nature of culture, social institutions, social interaction, social units, and their influence on the individual. An overview of sociological concepts and perspectives is also presented.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Upon successful completion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Identify and apply the three major theoretical sociological perspectives.
2. Identify the effects of culture and socialization on the diverse nature of people.
3. Describe the social structures within our society, how they interact, and the effect of deviance on society.
4. Identify and describe aspects of class, race, ethnicity, and gender on social inequality.
5. Describe the dominant social institutions within our society such as the family, education, religion, politics, and medicine.
6. Identify and describe social change and how it manifests itself in society.

COURSE CONTENT:

Within the online course in Blackboard you will find a highly detailed document called "Course Navigator." This document provides additional detail related to all course activities for each week.

COURSE ACTIVITIES:

Attendance

Attendance is graded very simply in this class, either you are there (score = 100) or you are not (score = 0). I will be taking attendance each session we meet and I will simply average all these scores together to formulate this part of your grade.

Attendance in this class is critical as we will be going over Lesson material pertinent to you completing the Lesson Quizzes...we will also be doing in-class activities to help facilitate your learning of the material.

Please review the online document titled "Course Expectations and Policies"

Chapter Quizzes

For each chapter in the book there will be a quiz that you will take online. Each quiz will consist of 20 multiple-choice questions that will be randomly selected from a database each time you take the quiz. You can take the quizzes as many times as you wish, but understand that each time you take the quiz you may get different questions. The HIGHEST of all your attempts will be the one that counts so there is no risk in taking the quiz over and over. The quizzes will be available from the beginning of the class but they must be completed by the end of the week in which the reading is assigned. Feel free to work ahead on these quizzes.

Links to these quizzes are located in the corresponding Chapter Quizzes link.

Extensions on the due dates for Module Quizzes may be allowed with sufficient reason, however, I reserve the judgment to not grant an extension. If you anticipate needing extra time it is best to get in touch with me PRIOR to the due date.

Special Assignments

The following assignments are those that have been incorporated into this class to not only teach you course content, but to also enable you to demonstrate learning associated with the KVCC General Education Outcomes. (See the section on General Education Outcomes in the Course Requirements section of this syllabus)

- Local Politics Special Assignment
- Ethics and Religion Special Assignment
- Academic Reading Special Assignment
- Service-Learning Project

It is critical that you review the information I have provided for each of these assignments in the course website. While the assignments are not particularly complicated, they are certainly complex, requiring planning and time management to complete them by their due dates.

GRADING:

Grading for the course will be accomplished in the following manner:

1. Attendance	25%
2. Chapter Quizzes	25%
3. Service-Learning Project	25%
4. Special Assignments	25%

GRADING SCALE:

Letter Grades---Based on a final grade scale of 0-100, the following letter grades will be assigned:

95-100	A
90-94	A-
87-89	B+

83-86	B
80-82	B-
77-79	C+
73-76	C
Below 73	F

Please note that I will not be giving grades below a C. The rationale to this is that students who do not master more than 72% of the material in this class are not prepared to meet the expectations of future classes or programs that require this course. It simply means that you have not learned enough material to really say that you have “passed” the class.
