INSTRUCTIONS

Generally

- A. The application cannot be altered after it has been signed by an examiner or judicial officer.
- B. A mental hospital is any hospital that is equipped to provide inpatient care and treatment for people with mental illness.
- C. The mental hospital named in the application may decline to admit the person, in which event the transporting agency must return the proposed patient from the hospital.
- D. The application expires 3 days after the patient's admission to the hospital, except that if the third day is a weekend or holiday, the application expires on the next business day following the weekend or holiday.

Section 1

- A. Any health officer, law enforcement officer or other person may fill out section 1.
- B. The applicant should provide name and address of the proposed patient's guardian, spouse, parent, adult, next of kin, or (if none of those exists) friend so that the hospital can fulfill its obligation to notify that person.

Section 2

- A. The certifying examination must take place no more than two days before the person is admitted to the hospital.
- B. The three boxes describe the three statutory bases for a finding of likelihood of serious harm. The certifying examiner must check at least one box and provide the designated narrative information to support the opinion that the person has a mental illness and that the illness creates a likelihood of harm.
- C. The grounds for the opinion about illness and harm may be based on personal observation or on history and information from other sources considered reliable by the examiner.

Section 3

- A. Between 11:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m., a proposed patient may be transported to the mental hospital designated in section 3 and held for evaluation and treatment pending judicial endorsement if the endorsement is obtained as soon as possible outside those hours.
- B. The applicant must fill in the name of the transporter and the destination hospital before seeking judicial endorsement.
